PERSONAL ENRICHMENT COURSES

Fall 2025

CERAMICS

Open Studio Ceramics

This Open Studio course is designed for adult ceramicists with intermediate to advanced skills who seek a flexible and self-directed environment to develop their personal practice and creative voice further. Participants will have access to a fully equipped ceramics studio to explore handbuilding, wheel throwing, sculptural techniques, glazing, and surface treatments at their own pace. Each student is provided with up to 50 lbs. of clay and access to studio glazes and firings. While this is a non-instructional format, the ceramics instructor is available during predetermined select hours for guidance on studio practices, demonstrations on technique, and providing a deeper understanding of clay/glaze material science. Open Studio access is available during Art Center hours. Access may be limited during the other noncredit class times. This offering is ideal for motivated makers but is not intended to support pottery production. Open studio members are required to help upkeep the cleanliness and safety of the studio and should contribute to studio maintenance.

INSTRUCTOR: Jessica Cropper-Alt

PREREQUISITES: Int Intro to Pottery Wheel, Intermediate to Advanced Pottery Wheel, AR-106 Intro to Ceramics, and/or permission from instructor. You'll need prior experience with ceramic techniques and independent studio practice. The instructor may request photo examples of your work.

SCHEDULE

September 25th - December 12th, 2025. Open access within Art Center Hours. Instructor is available Wednesdays and Thursdays, 9/10-11/6 from 5-6PM, and Mondays, 11/10-12/8 from 5-6PM OR by appointment. One meeting each week with the instructor is preferred.
Fee: $400

Introduction to Pottery Wheel

Discover the art of throwing clay on the potter's wheel in this hands-on introductory course. With a maximum of five students, you'll receive personalized instruction over five weeks in a relaxed and supportive environment. Learn the fundamentals of centering clay, shaping basic functional forms, trimming, and glazing your pieces. Approximately 25lbs of clay, access to studio glazes, and kiln firings are included. Hand tools are also included—bring your creativity and willingness to get a little messy! This course is the prerequisite for the Intermediate to Advanced wheel course, and is not intended for production pottery.
